In her Toronto Sun article, Fellow Candice Malcolm writes a tribute honoring the Canadian soldier who died three years ago during a horrific terrorist attack on Parliament Hill in Ottawa. Malcolm continues explaining the threat of terrorism has only grown larger and remarks, "there is no freedom without security, and Canadians deserve to know that our government is working to protect our safety and stop extremists from terrorizing Canada." Read the full article at Toronto Sun, here.