

Maria Alejandra Ruiz

Maria Alejandra Ruiz is a Graduate Fellow with the Center for a Secure Free Society. She first joined SFS in July 2021 as an intern, in this role, she helped with research on transnational crime. She graduated from Universidad del Rosario in Bogota, Colombia with an International Relations degree with concentrations in diplomacy and foreign affairs. Maria Alejandra is currently an analyst for Sin Candado Radio and columnist for El Bastión and is also studying for a Master's in Strategy and Geopolitics.