

Joshua Boyle Claims Taliban-Linked Captors Tried to Recruit Him

In this Toronto Sun article, Candice Malcolm details the exclusive correspondence that Joshua Boyle sent to the Sun in the weeks following his return to Canada in an effort to bring attention to the experiences he had with his captors as well as his personal views relating to the incident. Boyle and his wife Caitlan Coleman were kidnapped and held hostage by the Haqqani Network while traveling in Afghanistan in 2012. This article tells the intriguing story that offers nearly as many questions as it does answers. For the full exclusive on the Boyle family, click here.
