

Kylie Skorupa is SFS's Program Manager. She first joined SFS in May 2017 as an intern. In this role, Ms. Skorupa supported SFS operations, event planning, and research. Ms. Skorupa transitioned from her internship role at SFS to becoming a Student Fellow, where she took a lead role in marketing for the Center, managing our social media accounts and promotional emails.

In May 2018, she graduated from George Washington University's Elliott School with a Master's in International Affairs with concentrations in Conflict Resolution and Latin America. In 2016, Ms. Skorupa received her Bachelor of Arts in International Affairs and Spanish from James Madison University.

For all inquiries, requests, and invitations please call, email, or send correspondence to:

1440 G Street, NW #8198 • Washington D.C. 20005 • +1 (202) 909.1107 • kskorupa@securefreesociety.org