

Christina Armes is a Junior Research Fellow with the Center for a Secure Free Society and co-author of the VRIC monitor. As well as an SFS fellow, Christina is a freelance researcher and a contributing writer to the Middle East Forum. Christina received her bachelor's degree in History and Spanish from Florida State University.

For all inquiries, requests, and invitations please call, email, or send correspondence to:

1440 G Street, NW #8198 • Washington D.C. 20005 • +1 (202) 909.1107